MONTHLY RECOVERY RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP (RRF) THEMES

September 2022: Community building, community-based participatory research, and RRF overview
October 2022: Using academic literature and other knowledge sources to examine the peer role, benefits of peer services, and facilitators/barriers of peer workforce integration
November 2022: Using research towards policy advocacy work
December 2022: Using agency data and research for program management, evaluation, and fundraising, part I – Overview
January 2023: Using agency data and research for program management, evaluation and fundraising, part II - Quantitative focus
February 2023: Using agency data and research for program management, evaluation and fundraising, part III - Qualitative focus
March 2023: Presenting data and research findings in digestible and engaging ways to stakeholders
April 2023: "Meet the Funder" event: Telling compelling and data driven stories for sustainable funding
May 2023: Prepping research findings for community distribution: RRF papers and academic posters
June 2023: Community presentation of RRF products and celebration of Fellows: Reflections on the RRF experience and program evaluation (post-test administration, pre-test done in September)